UNITING OCEANS, ONE MARITIME VISION

27–31 OCTOBER 2025 · NESCO, GOREGAON, MUMBAI

सत्यमेव जयते
प्रधान मंत्री
PRIME MINISTER

History bears witness that whenever India's maritime capability has been strong, the country and the world have benefited greatly from it.

— Honourable Shri Narendra Modi

पत्तन, पोत परिवहन
एवं जलमार्ग मंत्रालय
MINISTRY OF
PORTS, SHIPPING
AND WATERWAYS

“On behalf of the Government of India, I warmly welcome the global maritime fraternity to Mumbai for India Maritime Week 2025. During our week long summit, we will celebrate our seafaring legacy, showcase next-generation shipping technology, and chart a course toward a sustainable, inclusive Blue Economy. From ports and shipyards to fleets and seafarers, from cargo handling to marine finance—India’s maritime ecosystem is evolving into a global powerhouse. I cordially invite you to explore opportunities, forge partnerships, and help us unlock the full potential of our ocean economy.”

— Shri Sarbananda Sonowal

HON'BLE MINISTER, MINISTRY OF PORTS, SHIPPING & WATERWAYS

पत्तन, पोत परिवहन
एवं जलमार्ग मंत्रालय
MINISTRY OF
PORTS, SHIPPING
AND WATERWAYS

“India’s maritime future is being written today—in our ports, on our ships, and through the bold decisions we take to modernise our blue economy. As the Ministry of Ports, Shipping and Waterways, it is our honour to anchor India Maritime Week 2025 as a beacon of collaboration, innovation, and inclusivity.

From green corridors and autonomous vessels to cruise terminals and coastal livelihoods, IMW 2025 is where vision meets action.

It brings together global stakeholders to reimagine the maritime ecosystem—more sustainable, more secure, and more connected.

As we chart the next chapter of our maritime legacy, I welcome all delegates to this transformative gathering. Let us sail forward together—with purpose, with partnership, and with pride.”

— Shri Shantanu Thakur

HON'BLE MINISTER OF STATE FOR PORTS, SHIPPING AND WATERWAYS

100 NATIONS ONE OCEAN

At India Maritime Week 2025, over 100 nations converge to co-create solutions, strengthen ties, forge partnerships and ensure the ocean remains a catalyst for equitable and sustainable progress.

FROM LOTHAL TO LEADERSHIP INDIA'S MARITIME EVOLUTION

2400 BCE

Lothal Dockyard

The Indus-Valley port of Lothal perfects a tidal-lock basin, enabling Harappan merchants to sail the Gulf of Khambhat and trade beads, copper and cotton with Mesopotamia.

1000 CE

Chola Blue-Water Navy

Chola emperors build a formidable fleet, mastering monsoon winds to extend Indian influence across South-East Asia and control vital spice routes.

1700s

Maratha Naval Power

The Maratha Navy under Admiral Kanhoji Angre secured India's western seaboard, building fort-based shipyards and leading indigenous naval resistance to colonial fleets.

5 Apr 1919

S.S. Loyalty

India's first merchant steamship, owned by Scindia Navigation, departs Bombay for London—igniting the modern Indian merchant marine and now celebrated as National Maritime Day.

1964

Shipping Corporation of India

SCI's formation consolidates disparate fleets, accelerates indigenous ship-management expertise, and positions India as a serious maritime nation.

2015

Sagarmala

Government unveils a ₹8 lakh crore port-led development plan to modernise infrastructure, cut logistics cost, and boost coastal employment.

2024

Cruise Bharat Mission

India releases a three-phase roadmap to host 1 million sea-cruise passengers and build 10 world-class cruise terminals by 2029.

2025

And the Journey Continues

India advances its green maritime agenda through the Harit Sagar Guidelines, Green Tug Transition Programme, Harit Nauka Scheme, and Green Corridors. Backed by Sagarmala, this includes clean fuels, electric vessels, and smart port tech like AI, IoT, and bathymetric systems to power a sustainable, tech-driven Blue Economy.
